

Statements of fact – or not?	True	False
1. A deceased estate must always be administered by an executor.
2. A Magistrate is addressed as Your Lordship.
3. A rule 43 order in a divorce is an interim order.
4. A judicial review application can only be made under PAJA.
5. Processing of data can be undertaken as long as the data subject consents.
6. A partnership is terminated if one partner dies.
7. NERSA is a Chapter 9 institution.
8. All companies must have a Memorandum of Incorporation under the Companies Act.
9. If a tenant has not paid rent during April 2020, can he/she be evicted?
10. Under the Legal Practice Act, 2014, you may not use the word "attorney" any longer, you can only refer to "legal practitioners".
11. The Department of Justice appoints sheriffs.
12. The proceeds of a crime constitute property and are therefore subject to the protection of section 25 of the Constitution.		